In Memory Of.

Jesse Robert Duggett, who was born June 10, 1869, and departed this life March 12, 1919.

He married Miss Liza Seabaugh January 14, 1892 and to this union were born eleven children—eight girls and three boys—all of whom survive him.

He also leaves two brothers, John W. of Bradford, Ark., and Grandison S. of Patton, one sister, Mrs. Nancy C. Bollinger of Fredericktown, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

The only comfort we have is looking forward to the time when we shall all be reunited in Heaven, an unbroken family. God saw fit to call him up to the mansion that He had prepared for him and that papa had labored so incessantly to obtain.

Just a short time before his affliction became so intense he told us he was going home to Heaven and was glad to go, but hated to leave mamma and the children, but commended us to God.

He had been a chronic sufferer for twenty years, but bore it with much patience. He had three strokes of paralysis during that time. He recovered the first two strokes well enough to get about, but the last stroke that came March 1 was too much for him to recover.

His remains were laid to rest in the Post Oak cemetery where relatives and friends assembled to pay their last respects and take the last view of the cold, familiar face, composed in death until we meet where we'll never say goodbye. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Joseph Simpson.

Our precious father from us has gone, His face on earth no more we'll see; And when we meet in Heaven Happy then we'll be.

We listen in vain for his footsteps, His smiling face to greet; But silence only answers, No more on earth to meet.

WRITTEN BY HIS CHILDREN.

THRIFT IS ..PREPAREDNESS..

Financial strength is to nations as important as military strength. No nation can survive a war if it cannot finance itself.

The man who fortified himself with an account in a savings bank does more than prepare himself—he contributes to the preparedness of the country.

Germany, unable to borrow from other countries, has been financed by the thrift of her people, as this thrift was expressed in accounts in savings banks.

A savings bank deposit helps the nation and is indispensable to the individual.
